What to do next

Once you have a date, time and an idea of your guest numbers, get in touch with us in whichever way is most convenient. Be it calling in to the hotel, over the phone or via email.

We will check availability in the most suitably sized room and make a provisional booking for you while you finalise other arrangements.

Once you are happy to go ahead and we have your menu choices, we will need a deposit payment of £250 to confirm the event.

Closer to the date, we will be in touch to check your final numbers, details of any known special diet requests within your group and to request the balance payment.

Your dedicated Event Co-ordinator will be on hand throughout the whole process and always ready to help with any questions or queries you might have.
